

From: sara power

To: Aaron Rutledge; Betty Hooper; Carey Oien; Chris Shonnard; Colene Lamberty; Deb Williams; Dot Richardson; Leota Hutsell; Lupe/Bardon Maginnis; Peggy Clark; Sara Power; Sharon Thornberry; Randy Kugler

Subject: Update

Date: Monday, September 24, 2012 3:31:45 PM

Bardon did contact Linda Modrell and she would be willing to moderate a meeting of the board. She is definitely available at the next scheduled board meeting, October 15, but I don't think we can wait that long. So she may be available at an earlier date. If we can get something in the mail tomorrow, we could schedule a meeting for next Monday (although I'd prefer any other night as I've already missed 2 jammin' sessions over this, and we have run out of jam!). Peace, Sara

--

"The pupil dilates in the night, and at last finds day in it: even as the soul dilates in misfortune, and at last finds God in it."

Victor Hugo in Les Miserables, as Jean Val Jean adjusts to the darkness of the sewers of Paris.

NOTE: No doubt county commissioner Linda Modrell was willing to play a leadership role in bringing people together at PCS but that did not fit the agenda put in motion.