

Jeff Lamb

From: Jeff Lamb [jefflamb02@peak.org]
Sent: Sunday, October 14, 2012 10:46 AM
To: Cheryl Good
Cc: Don Gist; Debbie Thorpe
Subject: Sara Powers

Cheryl,

I'm caught completely off guard by Marti Barlow sending out an email to the entire Board wanting to have Sara Powers play a role in picking PCS's three new Board Members. Also in wanting Sara Powers to be involved in putting together our fundraising letter, if we choose to go forward with that. As the three Executive Officers (Jeff, Don and Debbie) have mentioned to you and your team, we do not want to empower Sara as a spokesman for the Program Managers or the Board's internal affairs. Has Marti cleared her actions with your team? And I'm waiting for the phone call you were going to give me after your team met this morning. Debbie is working on 3 sets of minutes. As of right now we do not have a clear agenda for tomorrow's meeting especially now that Marti has gotten involved with the Sara Powers issue. Don Gist has agreed to open the meeting tomorrow and is also not happy that we seem to have a new issue (Sara) to deal with now. Marti is a valuable Board Member but she does not have all of the facts and she has not been involved in all of the negotiations between your team and the three of us. I'll wait for you to find an opportunity to talk to me today, we have to have an agenda and a plan that we all agree on and we have to find a way to keep on message and disciplined, that doesn't seem to be happening.

Jeff

LEGAL CONFIDENTIAL: The information in this Philomath Community Services' e-mail and in any attachment may contain information which is legally privileged. It is intended only for the attention and use of the named recipient.*

If you are not the intended recipient, you are not authorized to retain, disclose, copy or distribute the message and/or any of its attachments.

If you received this e-mail in error, please notify (webmaster@philomathcommunityservices.org) and delete this message.

Thank-you